

THE RACES.

A LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE RACES.

Lots of Races, But Little Enthusiasm.

Kamehameha Day has come and gone. The lovers of horse racing turned out almost en masse to witness the execution of a lengthy programme prepared by the Hawaiian Jockey Club. The grand stands, the club members' stand were all crowded, as well as the fence at different places around the track. From the tents, etc., at the place of entrance to the race course the grounds had an appearance of a darky camp-meeting ground down South. All that was wanting was the darkies with their hallojahs.

It was an orderly day; the only diversion from the interest in the races was the occasional sets between a few pugnaic spirits. But the presence of Marshal Wilson's men sort of threw any inclination to use his fists to the detriment of another's good looks, so nothing seriously happened. Only one arrest was made; but he objected so furiously to it that it required several cops to hold him in.

The day was calm, the sky clear and the weather cool. In fact, it was a model day. Added to the brilliancy of the light given forth by the sun, there were several other lights shining from some, not exactly round, but more lengthy, some short, some long, around whose bodies flaming bands encircled, dazzling to the eye.

The races commenced shortly after 10 o'clock. The race course was in pretty fair condition, rather dusty in some places. The first, fifth, sixth and sixteenth races were not run. Those run are given in order as follows:

C. U. S. S. PICNIC.

Pleasant Day at the Residence of the Superintendent.

A most enjoyable picnic was had by the Sunday-school children of the Central Union church at the residence of Mr. Jno. T. Waterhouse, Jr., the Superintendent, on Wyllie street, on Kamehameha Day, June 11th. The little ones, their parents and friends, began arriving at 9 o'clock, and continued till late in the afternoon. The residence of Mr. Waterhouse was thrown open to all, but the children satisfied themselves with playing games on the spacious grounds or in the cattle pen several hundred yards away. The big boys took possession of the latter place, and played several games of base ball.

At 12 o'clock noon Mr. J. T. Waterhouse stood at his gate and blew his horn, calling the strayed ones to lunch. A large lanai was erected in the yard, where the ladies had prepared refreshments for the hundreds that gathered around the tables. An hour was spent lunching, giggling, laughing, drinking soda-waters, etc. At the end of which, the crowds again dispersed. Some to their games in the fields, others around the yard playing croquet, lawn-tennis, etc.

At about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, a report was rapidly spread around that Her Majesty Queen Liliohalani was coming to pay the Sunday School children a visit. Her Majesty arrived in her state carriage accompanied by Major Jas. W. Robertson, H. M.'s Chamberlain, and Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, and ladies-in-waiting. The Queen and her attendants were received by Mr. Waterhouse and Hon. A. F. Judd. They were conducted under a shady tree where tea was served to them.

All enjoyed a most pleasant day at the picnic. The success of the picnic was due especially to the kind attentions of Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse to their guests.

Kohala Items.

About 2 o'clock last Friday night, Kimo Pake's large store at Hilo was destroyed by fire, while he was absent in Honolulu. It is only about a year since his store in Hilo was burned.

Mr. Jameson the new engineer at Hilo, while on the roof of the trash house looking out for sparks from the fire, unfortunately fell to the ground and sustained a severe injury to his back, but is said to be recovering.

Postmaster Eaton has moved to Hilo with his family, having been offered an opportunity to better himself there. His successor is Miss E. Low.

A native child about four years of age, while playing with matches, succeeded in setting the mosquito netting on fire with somewhat painful result, being severely burned about the chest and face.

The Kohala seminary closed on Friday the 5th, without the usual examination and exhibition, owing to the prevalence of the gripe. Three out of the four teachers and about thirty out of the fifty girls, having been through the siege and some of them not entirely recovered.

Very warm and dry weather prevails.

The Athletic Association.

As first announced in the ADVERTISER some days ago, the Honolulu Athletic Association is making arrangements to give an exhibition at the Opera House in the near future. The event takes place Saturday evening, June 20th. Any one who has seen the boys at training knows that it will be as fine an exhibition of its kind as can be seen anywhere. The association has made wonderful progress in their work, and deserve the large patronage they will in all probability receive.

Mr. Oscar Harold will act as musical director.

The iron tug Allice of Hilo has been sold to Honolulu parties, and will be in Honolulu the last of this month. She is a good boat. Built in London about four years ago; is very fast and a firm sea boat. It is thought she will make the run from Hilo to this port in about 24 hours.

THE NORTHWEST INVESTMENT TRUST COMPANY is organized for the purpose of negotiating loans on real estate, guaranteeing the payment of the same, issuing debenture bonds, receiving deposits, purchasing and selling secured commercial paper, municipal, county and school bonds, and corporation stocks and bonds and generally transacting the business of an investment loan and trust company.

The field of business of the Company is that portion of the State of Washington, U. S. A. tributary to Puget Sound and Gray's Harbor, which presents so fruitful and profitable a field for safe, legitimate and conservative investment.

It is the design and purpose of the promoters of this Company to confine its business strictly to the charter provisions of furnishing first-class securities to eastern investors, selling its debenture bonds and real estate first mortgage loans.

The unqualified success of loaning corporations in the States and the conservative character of their business has prompted the promoters, who have been interested in and connected with mortgage loan companies for the past 6 years, to the formation of THE NORTHWEST INVESTMENT TRUST COMPANY, which succeeds to an already well established and profitable loaning business.

Parties desiring a safe and guaranteed 8 per cent. investment will do well to give the above their careful consideration.

A Prospectus of the Company may be had on application, and any information desired will be gladly furnished by
